I want to be able to share this with my own children some day, and maybe with their children. Most Florida beaches are dynamic and full of change: the beach is either growing or shrinking, dunes are advancing or retreating, currents are changing, the surf is increasing or decreasing. This beach is changing, but not in a negative way. It is human nature to see progress and welcome the changes. It is less obvious, but humans also love to share, so this is also part of the charm. I hope you enjoy this video and stay tuned for more of my best nature beach videos. - I am a Beach Boy (t-shirt, backpack, beach towels, and Beach stuff). I love the water and I love the coast. I am happiest when I am beside a beach. b7e8dfd5c8
