I have read the notes at the top: This is the direct link to the GameDev site. However it appears that there is a similar link here, leading to GameDev. Is this link not allowed? Why, if it is not allowed, is it allowing this link, which appears to be the same as the links to SO for instance. A: This is not a link to GameDev, it's a link to Game Development's blog, which happens to be in the same directory as GameDev's home page. Instead of complaining about it, just be grateful that the page is so useful in terms of showcasing the blogs that are featured.
